

The Spoke

President Bob rang the bell! Joe Murgalo led us in The Pledge of Allegiance.

Mark G. forced us to sing a naughty song, Afternoon Delight!!

Bob called on Mark McCaw for a briefing on Foundation activity.. Mark McCaw is now term limited as a director, however,, he has agreed to continue as non-director Treasurer. Mark discussed the Foundation's activities including efforts to support food pantries and high school scholarships. Steve McIntosh was voted to the foundation board for the next Rotary year.

Bob Langhans reported that he would be leaving about a month and a half late to Ithaca NY and he just wanted to say thank you to this club and all its members for being welcoming to him.

Nancy Landy reported that she attended the graduation of her granddaughter Eliana who won several awards and was very shy but excited anyway!

This Week's Program:

Rachel Hutchison, Animal Abuse Task Force, Lee County

This Morning's Invocation

Good and gracious God, in our witness to others enable us to be steadfast in duties deeply felt and humbly accepted. Help us to be thoroughly responsible in our stewardship of the opportunities we are given to be truthful and fair, to show a benevolent spirit toward others, and to rigorously uphold the high ethical and moral standards we espouse as Rotarians. Bless now our gathering in this place, that our influence for good will be felt in this small corner of the world. To that end we offer gratitude for sustaining food, enriching fellowship and invigorating involvement in worthwhile endeavors. Amen.

YOU'RE A GRAND OLD FLAG

You're a grand old flag
You're a high-flying flag
And forever in peace may you wave
You're the emblem of
The land I love
The home of the free and the brave
Ev'ry heart beats true
Under red, white and blue
Where there's never a boast or brag
But should old acquaintance be forgot
Keep your eye on the grand old flag

From Hotelier to Realtor

Joe Murgalo stepped up to present his Vocation Service Moment. Joe's father was a naval officer, so his family moved around a lot finally settling in Silver Spring, MD. Joe graduated from the U of MD in 1980 with a degree in communications. During his high school and college years, he had worked at hotels and restaurants so as jobs were scarce, he took a job in management at the hotel he where he had been working to "pay the rent". After two years, he found he "had a passion for the business". Then he applied for and was hired by Hyatt Hotels and Resorts. Thirty-two years and fifteen moves later, still with Hyatt, he came to Bonita Springs, "my favorite place to live ever". Joe says he loved being hotel general manager. "You get to use both sides of your brain, the intellectual side and the creative side." When the Hyatt asked him to move again, he made a choice of "family first". Joe has been a single parent for 10 years raising two daughters. His younger daughter was a junior in high school and Joe made the decision to stay here, left Hyatt, and became a realtor for Engel & Volkers an international real estate firm.
