The Estero High School Interact Club held its first meeting of the 2021-22 academic year. Co-President Clayton Chauncy led 40 students in the Pledge and the Four-Way Test, as Steve and our EHS Sponsor, Jayne Klinker, presented a PowerPoint on the objects of Rotary and Interact, and the importance of service above self. "This starts our 23d academic year as an Interact Club", says Dr. Steve McIntosh, founding sponsor of the Club. Ms. Klinker added, "We are the largest Club on campus, and typically complete at least 1,000 hours of community service every year."

Last year the club held its meetings outdoors because of the need for Covid management. Even so, the club managed to log 750 Community Service Hours. Congratulations for a job well done.
