

President Eileen rang the bell. GT Tasso did The Invocation, Joe Murgalo led us in The Pledge of Allegiance, and Sue Masters did The Four Way Test.

Co-Song Leader Meg led the members in April Showers.

Rex's favorite son Steve was a guest and thanked everyone for being such a big part of his father's life! Rex in turn had happy dollar for his son's success in Real Estate.

Nancy announced the success of the Meals of Hope event.

Jim has several announcements including that we have finally found a replacement for the irreplaceable John Flam-mang—Linda Waterhouse will be out next Club Treasurer

Kae announced that we have an open position on the Club Foundation Board.

Dr. P had a box of chocolates that his daughter asked him to help her sell. Apparently, they are the smallest chocolate bars that anyone has ever seen.

Joe recognized Dr. Steve after participating with him at the interviews for Estero High School scholarships. Joe found it to be an enlightening experience.

Northstar Technologies presented their unique building materials!

Our first day at Spring Run will be May 4. Arrive at 6:30, breakfast at 7:00, meeting from 7:30-8:30. Enter through the north entrance, left of the main entrance. The check in table will be in the lobby. Men are required to wear collared shirts, and ladies should have their shoulders covered...denim is allowed as long as it is not bleached, ripped, torn or extremely frayed.

Rotary Sings: Somewhere Over The Rainbow

Somewhere over the rainbow, way up high
There's a land that I've heard of once in a lullaby.
Somewhere over the rainbow, skies are blue
And the dreams that you dare to dream,
Really do come true.

Someday I'll wish upon a star
And wake up where the clouds are far behind me.
Where troubles melt like lemon drops,
High above the chimney tops,
That's where you'll find me.

Somewhere over the rainbow, blue birds fly
Birds fly over the rainbow
Why then, oh why can't I?

If happy little bluebirds fly beyond the rainbow
Why, oh why can't I?

This Morning’s Invocation:

O God of the family, strengthen our ties with You and one another, sanctify the family bond of love and understanding that this basic unit of our society might be strong and enduring, bind us together in unity of heart, mind and purpose. Help us, that our love for You will be reflected in all our relationships with those whom we serve upon this earth. Increase our appreciation of the bond of marriage and the family, that we may see these institutions as the fulfillment of true fidelity and noble living. Amen.
